

The mission statement at Kroop & Co. Transport + Logistics GmbH

At Kroop & Co. employees and cultures from different countries meet on each other. Respectful interaction beyond nationalities and national borders, mutual understanding and helpfulness among each other as well as with customers, partners and drivers should bring us a little closer together every day.

The most important ethical values at Kroop & Co.

Compliance with the law: We do not gain any market advantage through unfair or illegal practices. The laws of the countries in which we operate are strictly observed.
Honesty: We treat proprietary information with care and also with the property and assets of the company.

Personal integrity and loyalty: Among colleagues, we maintain the highest level of integrity and fairness among colleagues and avoid situations in which personal interests could conflict with the interests of the company.

Tolerance: Diversity in origin, culture and personality is respected both internally among employees and externally with customers and colleagues.
Accepted internally among employees and externally among customers and hauliers, and does not lead to reservations in our daily dealings with each other.

Equality : We ensure an attractive working environment that allows talented and motivated employees to get equal and unrestricted development possibilities, regardless of gender and origin.

Social commitment : We ensure that our service is continuously developed in terms of quality and sustainability, based on environmental, social and economic responsibility.